Election/Restrictions

The previous requirement for election/restriction dated 7/20/2006 is being vacated, as Examiner failed to restrict between the connecting device of Fig. 1 and the template of Fig. 2. Examiner apologizes for this error.

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Newly submitted claims 28-31 and currently amended claims 1, 2, and 4-6, drawn to a template, classified in class 426, subclass 542.8.
- II. Originally presented claims 1, 2, 4-8 and 10-12, drawn to a connecting device, classified in class 52, subclass 702.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as mutually exclusive species in an intermediate-final product relationship. Distinctness is proven for claims in this relationship if the intermediate product is useful to make other than the final product, and the species are patentably distinct (MPEP § 806.05(j)). In the instant case, the intermediate product is deemed to be useful for forming the device of non-elected Fig. 3, or for that matter, could be further cut or bent to form any product, such as an identifying tab or benchmark, and the inventions are deemed patentably distinct because there is nothing on this record to show them to be obvious variants.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.
